PLUMBING, STEAM AND HOT

WATER HEATING.

L. F. QUAA. J. A. McMILLAN.

ROANOKE SUPPLY HOUSE,
No. 214 Salem avenue, Roanoke, Va.

We are now established in our commodious premises at the above address, and prepared to take care of all work in the various branches that may be intrusted to us. We carry a line of everything pertaining to plumbing, steam and hot water heating, gas fitting, hot furnace work, stoves, ranges and boiling utensils. Our work in some of the principal hotels, business houses and private residences in this city and vicinity, prove that what we do is done right. In the supply department we carry a full line of rubber and leather tapping, packing, steam and water hose, on pipe and fittings, valves of the various kinds, injectors, ejectors, lubricators, steam and air gauges. In the new room on second floor we have the best display of gas fixtures and sanitary appliances in Southwest Virginia.
We are now engaged in fitting up on first floor front one of the most commodious and attractive displays of high class plumbing that can be seen anywhere and would respectfully invite the public inspection. Due notice will be given when ready. Prices on goods based on application and estimates for work cheerfully given. Respectfully, L. F. QUAA & J. A. McMILLAN.

A BEAUTIFUL HOME.

The Elegant Mansion of Col.
John E. Penn.

Of the handsome residences that or-namend and adorn the Magic City, that of Col. John E. Penn is prominent. Situated on the corner of Campbell and Grove streets, fronting one hundred and ninety feet on the former, running back to the intersection of the latter with Luck street, the grounds in all comprise about two acres. These grounds are subdivided into three plots, of which the rear one is used for kitchen gardening, and is now filled with vegetables, fruit trees and luxuriant grape arbores. The middle subdivision is occupied by servant houses, carriage house, stables and barn. The front subdivision is a lawn of white clover and native grass neatly mown and in color as fresh and green as any vale of Erin's Isle.

But it is the magnificent grove of native oak, hickory, poplar, maple and lindens, through the branches of some of which sighed, perhaps, the same zephyrs that kissed the cheek of Pow-hatan's daughter that impresses the beholder with the idea that, beneath their ample shade, he could recline reading Thompson's seasons and dream that the chirp of the English sparrow was the song of a nightingale in Arcadia.
It is in the midst of this grove that the mansion lies. It is a large two-story structure of pleasing architecture, comprising ten commodious and well-ventilated rooms, bathrooms, pantries, linen rooms, etc. The bedrooms are especially handsome, being furnished for the most part in old mahogany and marble, adorned with pictures, statuary and other beautiful bric-a-brac, the name of which is only known to women.

The room of the little Misses Hulda and Susie, which is arranged and kept entirely according to their own tastes, is especially neat and attractive, abounding with pictures, books and other pleasing little notions of young girlhood. The dining room is large, neat and cozy; the parlor is large, fronting Campbell street with a handsome bay window, and is furnished in silk plush and walnut. Fine paintings adorn the walls, and refined statuary tastefully disposed complete the interior.

In Mrs. Penn's private room there are two portraits which attract at once the eye of the beholder. One is the mother of Col. Penn, disclosing noble, sweet features that impress the beholder at once that he is gazing upon the "counterfeit presentment" of a grand old lady of the old regime. The other is a portrait of the gallant Colonel, taken in his twenty-fifth year while a prisoner in Baltimore, whither he was taken after being wounded and captured while commanding a brigade at the battle of Sharpsburg or Antietam, during the late war.

Altogether this is one of the most beautiful and pleasant homes of Roanoke, which is noted for its attractive residences.

Are You In It?

If not, why not? Why don't you always keep on hand a bottle of Dr.
Hale's Household Cough Cure to allay the first irritation caused by a sudden cold? This is the finest remedy in the world for every kind of cough. You feel the good effect of the first dose, and by thorough using your cough is soon cured. 25 and 50c. bottles. Massie & Martin's drug store, corner Commerce street and Salem avenue.

Mrs. H. E. Wellman,

No. 2 LINN street, Janesville, Wis., under date of June 19, writes the following: Kenyon & Thomas, Sirs: I was confined to my bed four months with inflammation of the right ovary, had a good physician and tried almost everything, but got very little help until I tried your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment about four months ago. It has done wonders for me. I can do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe that it will cure me. I am also using your Dr. Hale's Household Tea with good results. Sincerely yours, Mrs. H. E. Wellman. This great medicine is for sale at Massie & Martin's drug store, corner Commerce
street and Salem avenue.

Is Your Nerve Steady

OR do you tremble and feel that you are breaking; that your nervous system is giving way? If you have a weak nervous system the very best thing you can do is to begin to-day using Dr. Hale's Household Tea. It is the finest Nerve Tonic known and will restore you to health and vigor. Don't delay. Get a free sample to-day at Massie & Martin's drug store, corner Commerce street and Salem avenue.

BEAR LITHIA SPRINGS.

An Excellent Season Anticipated at This Popular Resort.

ELKTON, Va., June 14.—[Special]— The fine rains of the past five days have put a cheering aspect upon all things around us. Vegetation is advancing rapidly and from indications in this part of the Valley the wheat harvest will be heavy. The corn is growing at a rapid rate and if nothing happens to check its growth it will be an immense crop. The grass is luxuriant of course in such showery weather. As to fruit it is scarce, and still worse, it is being devoured greedily by rose bugs, greatly to the dismay of the good wives who anticipate much difficulty in making pies by reason of the lack of fruit the coming winter. The bugs appear in myriads everywhere, eating up all the fruit spared by Jack Frost. Why these are called "rose" bugs can't be explained, except perhaps for their fondness for roses.

This is one of the prettiest dots in the valley of the Shenandoah. The scenery is simply picturesque, the climate sublimely, the air bracing. The elegant, commodious hotel, the management of which Mr. Frank B. Yates, a genial citizen of Staunton, has assumed for the season, is pleasantly situated on a knoll between the Blue Ridge and Mansuet Mountains. It is more than probable that this is the very spot where the colonial Governor Spotswood rested after his hazardous ride over from the other side of the Blue Ridge, by reason of the fact that a silver buckle has been found in the path down which the governor is said to have ridden with his suite.

But this is a digression. The lithia water is noted for its medicinal propensities. It has worked wonders in many cases of dyspepsia and for liver and kidney trouble; nor is this all, it is delightful to drink and cool too. Mine Host Yates has come here to stay; his estimable wife will aid him in the management; so far as been seen of them, they understand the business, and it will be their aim to please all people who come to their hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bear, who composed the former management, will be pleased to see any or all of their old guests here again. They will help them pass time pleasantly.

One thing that especially delights us:
The nights are cool and pleasant here, and all find light blankets most agreeable to sleep under.

Among the latest arrivals, Mrs. Ro-cap and her son, from Philadelphia, and Prof. H. M. Chamberlain, of Staunton.
"VISITOR."

Now Try This.

IT WILL cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a Cough, Cold, or any trouble with Throat, Chest or Lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at Christian & Barbee's Drug Store.
Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. CLIFFORD, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength.
Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three boxes of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one bottle Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Christian & Barbee's Drug Store.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The National Business College, having an increasing demand for competent stenographers, typewriters, bookkeepers, etc., have decided to establish a regular employment bureau, and all wishing to qualify in any of the departments of the college, will do well to enter soon. To those wishing competent assistants for positions indicated, we ask them to consult us either by letter or by calling at the college. No vacation. Students enter at any time.

ROANOKE ATHLETIC CLUB.

The Members Expect to Get Into Their New Quarters Very Soon.

The Roanoke Athletic Club will soon be in its handsome new gymnasium. It was quite a task remodeling the old Bridgwater Carriage Works but the work is progressing favorably and will probably be ready for the apparatus some time this month.

The apparatus is all here, and when it is set in position Roanoke will be able to boast of the finest gymnasium in the State. Several members of the club are excellent athletes, and it is the purpose of the board of governors to divide the club into classes and give a thorough course of instruction in all the athletic branches. It is also proposed to organize a ball club, and a general meeting will soon be called to select players.

Entitled to the Best.

This we say of all those who are so unfortunate as to require the use of medicine to assist nature to the proper performance of her functions. Persons suffering with scrofula, cancer, blotches, scaly skin, old sores, bad humors in the blood, or any disease that indicates impure blood, will find that Dr. David's Iodo-Ferrated Sarsaparilla will thoroughly cleanse the blood, eliminate all impurities and make the skin soft and smooth. It has been used for years by the leading physicians of this and other countries has proven its value as a blood medicine. Price $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5. For sale by Massie & Martin, Roanoke, Va.

D. D. I. F. S.

These are the initial letters to a medical wonder. As human nature is heir to ills of every kind, and as nearly every disease enters and is diffused through the system by the blood, it is evident that if the blood is in an unhealthy condition it imparts to the body its impure state, and disease and death follow. There is a cure for impure blood, and therefore a cure for all diseases arising from it. That cure is Dr. David's Iodo-Ferrated Sarsaparilla. Price $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5 at Massie & Martin's, Roanoke, Va.
